

2021

Researched and written in graduate school; submitted for publication and revised in response to peer reviewers' comments while at Oxy

Three peer reviewers, double-blind peer review.

1-4 sentence description of the article.

If co-authored: 1-2 sentence description of Oxy author's contribution, how to interpret author order, etc.

If Oxy students were involved in the research/publication: 1-2 sentence on their role.

2020

Researched, written, and co-authored prior to arriving at Oxy

Three peer reviewers, double-blind peer review.

1-4 sentence description of the article.

If co-authored: 1-2 sentence description of Oxy author's contribution, how to interpret author order, etc.

1-4 sentence description of the book project.

1-2 sentences on the status of the project (e.g., I am still in the research phase of the project; e.g., I have completed the research for and drafted three of the six chapters; e.g., I have completed a full draft of the manuscript and am in the process of having discussions with presses. I anticipate submitting a book proposal by [add date here]; e.g. I have procured an advanced contract and the full manuscript is out for peer review (two, double-blind peer review); e.g., The full manuscript has been sent to three reviewers (double-blind review) who recommended the press publish the book. In response to their feedback, the press awarded me a book contract with a final deadline of [add date here]. I am now revising the chapters based on their feedback and anticipate being able to submit the completed manuscript by [add date here].)

1-4 sentence description of the article.

1 sentence on the status of the project (e.g., I am at the beginning of this project, still collecting data/conducting interviews/reviewing the scholarly literature/etc.; e.g., I have spent two months over the past two summers gleaning evidence from the archives and have a firm sense of my argument, and my next step will be to draft the manuscript; e.g., I have a full draft of the manuscript; after I do a final pass of polishing over Fall Break I plan to submit it for peer review; e.g., I have received a Revise & Resubmit; I estimate it taking two weeks to address the recommended revisions and plan to submit the revised version by December 31)

